

Head of Fundraising & Supporter Relations

Full time role

Salary circa £36,000 p.a. (depending on experience plus pension and other benefits)
London

Enabling evangelicals to impact society

Are you a strategic, enthusiastic and self-motivated Christian fundraiser or business entrepreneur with a proven track record of success? We need you to join our team at this exciting time of growth and development.

The Evangelical Alliance is seeking to appoint a new Head of Fundraising & Supporter Relations to enable us to reach our ambitious fundraising goals and find new sources of income for increasing the impact of our initiatives.

Already raising over £2 million annually, largely from individuals, we need a strategic and entrepreneurial Head of Fundraising who can develop and oversee the implementation of an integrated fundraising strategy aiming to maximise income from individuals, major donors, churches, trusts and corporate members.

Working closely with the General Director and managing a small fundraising team, you will be a strategic and creative thinker with energy, initiative and commitment to inspire team members to reach fundraising goals. This role will be 'hands on' in terms of developing plans and fundraising resources and will always be proactive.

You will have:

- A track record of achieving ambitious fundraising or business targets
- An inspirational and effective management style
- Excellent strategic planning and organisational skills
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to build relationships with current and potential major donors.

About the Evangelical Alliance

The Evangelical Alliance, formed in 1846, is the largest body serving evangelical Christians in the UK, and has a membership of 24,000 individuals, 700 organisations and 3,300 churches across 79 denominations.

The mission of the Alliance is to unite evangelicals to present Christ credibly as good news for spiritual and social transformation. Today the Alliance achieves this by launching initiatives and resources that empower local churches and individuals to be vibrant and dynamic communities of faith.

There is a genuine requirement for this post to be filled by a committed evangelical Christian. Regulation 7(2) of the Employment Equality (Religion or belief) Regulations 2003 apply.
